Marriage isn't easy. The strains of it become evident when Kansas Benjamin loses her twins during pregnancy. Her husband becomes distant, immersing himself in work and more frequent trips out of town until one day he doesn't come home at all. Questions reveal an affair. A divorce separates them and Kansas moves on with her life; finding a job, even falling in love again. But the more she integrates into her new life, the more she is reminded of the old one. Clues begin to fall around her until a shocking truth is revealed that places Kansas at the center of a crime. It will take more than strength to recover. For Kansas, it takes revenge.
